National Night Out

The Lee Road Safe Neighborhoods National Night Out event was held on October 1 at Open House located at 1325 Lee Road, Orlando. We had live music from local resident Terry Greenlee, coffee from Oh Hey Cafe (located in the same building), the OverRice food truck, and a bunch of local businesses and organizations.

Some of the local businesses and groups that joined our NNO event were the Orange County Library Fairview Shores Branch, Smatron Electric, Ameriteam Realty, Be SMART gun safety, Saint Margaret Mary Catholic Church, Divine Crystals, Orange County Commissioner-elect Kelly Semrad, Orange County Democrats, Orange County Supervisor of Elections, Representative Anna Eskamani, MorningStar Storage, and The Mustard Seed.

In addition to the many vendors present, there was a prize wheel with some really awesome items like speakers, headphones, weather radios, mini karaoke, and more. There were free diapers and grocery gift cards for those in need. There was fresh produce and other resources for those who could use it and things like bike helmets for the kids. There were even yard games like corn hole and rope toss in the large backyard area behind the indoor event space. Although it ended up raining, everyone stayed nice and dry inside and enjoyed the evening. The Orange County Sheriff's office joined us for some of the fun and visited with many of the area's young children. We hope that you join us next year for this annual event as either an attendee or as one of our vendors!

Street Cleanups

Check our social media for our bi-monthly cleanups. We have regular cleanups on Lee Road. We provide all volunteers with gloves, bags, grabbers and neon vests. Come help keep our neighborhood clean!
